Arts Factor: This fund increases access to live performances at The Mendel Center among underserved members of our community by providing free and highly-subsidized tickets. We work with service organizations to identify young people, families, seniors, and individuals with disabilities who would benefit from educationally- and socially-enriching activities.

Premiere Partners: This endowed fund is a permanent, self-sustaining source of funding. Donations to the endowment are permanently restricted for the purpose of supporting the activities of The Mendel Center and enhancing the patron experience.
